

Terms of Service

Northstar Cloud Systems, Inc. | Effective January 1, 2026

Effective date

January 1, 2026

1. Acceptance and service

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern access to and use of services provided by Northstar Cloud Systems, Inc. ("Northstar"). By creating an account, purchasing a subscription, or using the service, the customer agrees to these Terms and any applicable order or service-specific terms.

2. Accounts and responsibilities

Customers must provide accurate account information, maintain the confidentiality of credentials, and promptly notify Northstar of suspected unauthorized access. Customers are responsible for activity performed through their accounts except to the extent caused by Northstar's breach of its obligations.

3. Customer content

As between the parties, the customer retains all ownership rights in content submitted to the service ("Customer Content"). The customer grants Northstar a limited, non-exclusive right to host, copy, transmit, process, and display Customer Content only as reasonably necessary to provide, secure, maintain, and support the service and as otherwise expressly permitted by these Terms or a separate written agreement.

4. Acceptable use

Customers may not use the service to violate applicable law; gain unauthorized access to systems or accounts; distribute malware; interfere with service operation; circumvent security controls; conduct abusive automated activity; infringe intellectual property or privacy rights; or use the service to facilitate fraud or other unlawful conduct.

5. Privacy

Northstar's collection and use of personal information is described in the Privacy Policy. These Terms do not authorize Northstar to use personal information in a manner inconsistent with the Privacy Policy. Where a separate written agreement contains specific data-processing obligations, those obligations apply to the extent stated in that agreement.

6. Confidentiality

Confidential information exchanged under a separate confidentiality agreement remains subject to that agreement. Nothing in these Terms is intended to remove or reduce confidentiality protections agreed between the parties.

7. Intellectual property

Northstar and its licensors retain all rights in the service, software, documentation, templates, branding, and other Northstar materials. Except for the limited rights expressly granted in these Terms, no intellectual property rights are transferred to the customer.

8. Fees, billing, and cancellation

Paid subscriptions are billed according to the applicable order or pricing page. Customers are responsible for applicable taxes other than taxes on Northstar's net income. Cancellation prevents future renewal but does not ordinarily eliminate fees already incurred. Northstar may suspend or terminate access for non-payment after reasonable notice, subject to applicable law and contractual terms.

9. Availability and security

Northstar aims to provide reliable service and maintains reasonable safeguards designed to protect the service and information processed through it. The service may be unavailable temporarily for maintenance, upgrades, emergencies, or events outside Northstar's reasonable control. No uninterrupted or error-free availability is promised unless a separate SLA expressly provides otherwise.

10. Disclaimers

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the service is provided without implied warranties except those that cannot lawfully be excluded. Northstar does not warrant that the service will meet every business requirement or operate without interruption.

11. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, neither party will be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages arising from the Terms. Except for liabilities that cannot lawfully be limited, each party's aggregate liability arising from the service will not exceed the fees paid or payable by the customer for the service during the twelve months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

12. Changes to the Terms

Northstar may update these Terms from time to time. Material changes will receive reasonable advance notice where practicable. Continued use after the effective date of an updated version may constitute acceptance where legally permitted.

13. Suspension and termination

Northstar may suspend or terminate access for material breach, unlawful use, security risk, or non-payment, subject to applicable notice and cure requirements. Upon termination, the customer's right to use the service ends. Provisions that by their nature should survive termination, including ownership, confidentiality, payment obligations, disclaimers, limitations of liability, and dispute provisions, will survive.

14. Governing terms

Any order, master services agreement, or other written agreement signed by the parties may contain additional terms. If a conflict exists, the signed agreement controls to the extent of the conflict. These Terms do not override separate confidentiality or data-processing obligations unless expressly stated.

15. Contact

Questions regarding these Terms may be submitted to legal@northstarcloud.example.
